

SS 102 World History Two Course Learning Objectives

CLO 1: Analyze a variety of primary and secondary historical sources and their varying perspectives.

CLO 2: Evaluate the origins, evolution, and impact of revolutions, with a focus on the political, economic, intellectual, and cultural changes.

CLO 3: Assess the origins, interrelationships, development and impact of nationalism, industrialization, imperialism and globalization.

CLO 4: Compare and contrast the differences between traditional, modern and the intersectionality of those societies.

CLO 5: Explain the connections between world events and their influence on social change across diverse societies from the Renaissance to the present.

PREREQUISITE or COREQUISITE

ENG 101 In this course, students will examine questions raised by the development and underdevelopment of several different types of socioeconomic systems, including early communes, slave societies, feudal societies, and capitalist societies. The course will emphasize relationships between Europe, Africa, the Americas, and Asia, with a focus on how the economic interests of the developed Western industrial nations and European capitalism have influenced world events.