

SS 105 US History Two Course Learning Objectives

CLO 1: Analyze the effects of the American Civil War on various states, classes, politics and the economics of the Reconstruction era.

CLO 2: Explain the effects of America's involvement in WWI and WWII on the fabric of the American economy and social class system.

CLO 3: Trace the evolution of voting rights, suffrage movements and immigration patterns in the late nineteenth-century American political and socio-economic spheres.

CLO 4: Evaluate the impact of social, religious, intellectual, and cultural movements in the United States from the Reconstruction Era to the present

CLO 5: Understand popular movements for change and their impact on American and World History.